

arrested and taken before Justice Darkhorn, for a breach of the peace and threatening to kill one Lewis Hubel. He was put under bonds to keep the peace.

The residents of Bloomfield had an interesting meeting last evening. David Oakes, Esq., presided, and addresses were made by Messrs. DeWitt of Belleville and Foster of this city. A Committee was appointed to report a plan of organization at a future meeting. Much feeling is manifested in Bloomfield on this subject. There is said to be a considerable number of places in the village which sell liquor without license, and, as a consequence, several disturbances of a serious character have occurred. It is proposed by some to form a Vigilance Committee, who shall take active measures to suppress the business, by prosecuting all engaged in it.

The City Temperance Society will hold its weekly meeting, as usual, in Rechabite Hall, Market street, on Friday evening. Mr. H. Ross will deliver an address. Other speakers are expected to be present. Messrs. Matts, Morris and Wrigley, will entertain the meeting with their temperance songs.

One of our city clergymen, in company with two other gentlemen of this city and one from New York, started yesterday afternoon on a shooting, fishing and general sporting tour to the Saranac, a wild region in the upper part of New York state, described in a late number of Harpers' Magazine. They design to be absent several days and anticipate much pleasure and renewed health amid the invigorating air of that region and the exercise incident to the trip.

A party of 15 gentlemen left this city yesterday

The Kriegabereitechaft was night before it was made by the necessities of the required to secure his loan that she was in too great and, being angry with her incensed against her neighbor, explanation that can be silence she maintains in demands for a withdrawal of the Emperor's proclamation.
