

2017 Summer Art Camp Schedule

Morning Session - 9:00 - 11:30

Lunch - 11:30 - 12:00

Afternoon Session - 12:00 - 2:00

Lunch: All campers should bring a water bottle for the day and their lunch in a bag/lunch box each clearly labeled with their name. All lunches will be refrigerated.

Tuition: $250.00 per week for session 1, 3 & 4
$285.00 per week for sessions 2
Oakeside offers discounts for siblings attending the same session or for children attending multiple sessions.

Dress and Health Information: Campers should dress for the sometimes messy work of active art projects. All our materials are non-toxic and safe for children, but we cannot keep them “mess free.” Oakeside staff must be informed in writing of any behavioral, medical conditions or allergies before a child attends camp, absolving Oakeside Bloomfield Cultural Center and its employees of any liability.

Art Camp Staff: The 2017 Summer Art Camp will be under the direction of Kim Reilly.

Week 1 will be taught by Vickie Payne. Vickie is a certified teacher with a background in the arts. She has used her creativity in the classroom to foster a dynamic and interactive learning environment. As a mother of three, she understands what it takes to keep children of all ages engaged and excited to learn.

Week 2 will be taught by Danielle Bocchiaro. Danielle has taught second grade for 5 years in East Hanover, following 13 years as a pre-K/kindergarten teacher. She enjoys working with children of all ages to help them reach for their dreams through education.

Weeks 3 & 4 will be taught by Carolina Rivera. Carolina is an elementary art teacher in Belleville, NJ with 8 years of experience teaching in the classroom. With a Master’s in Art Education, she loves creating artwork with children and helping them explore their creativity.

Facilities: Oakeside is fully air-conditioned, and handicapped accessible. Parking is available.
